Walt's Notes

It's true! Sometimes I feel like satan uses me for a punching bag and God allows it to toughen me up and keep me sharp. My heart has found joy as the entire community has reached out to help me. Thank you all for your continued support as we move into August. We have many members dealing with some kind of health issues. I encourage you to give them a call, send them a card, write them a note, or send them a text. When you are struggling with health issues, it is always a relief to know that you are not alone.

This is also a red letter month for me as I begin seminary. It is something that has always been on my bucket list and I am so very grateful that God has granted me this opportunity to enrich my theology so that I can better meet your needs as we move forward. I ask for your continued prayers and support as I take this step.

God bless you all. Rev Walt

And be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving one another, just as God also forgave you in Christ. – Ephesians 4:32

“The human imagination is not only a great gift of God; it is also an aspect of the image of God. “

Matthew P. Ristuccia, Gene Edward Veith Jr.
