Walt's Notes

The month of February is upon us and we will be continuing with our study of Elijah throughout this month. We have seen how Elijah lived in a world full of indecision and lack of commitment as leadership failed the people of Israel. But, in truth, the people did not hold their leaders accountable for their actions. They allowed Ahab and Jezebel to lead them into sin by not standing against the worship of Baal and Asherah. They embraced indifference as they faced adversity, choosing instead to forget all God had done for them..

That is not so different from today's world. We struggle to keep our footing in a world given to selfishness and control, where it is too easy to ignore the plight of our neighbors. As a church, we must allow God to guide our decisions in the days to come rather than leaning into a world committed to less than Godly values. We are our brother's keeper, for we are the hands and feet of Jesus. We must not shy from our stature as the children of our Creator.

God bless you all! Rev Walt
