Walt's Notes

“He is risen! He is risen, indeed!” Words filled with promise and hope. But oh, the suffering, pain, and humiliation that our Lord endured to fulfill that promise to us, where death was defeated and the stone rolled away.

We often attempt to focus on just one aspect of Holy Week when all the events of Jesus' thirty-three years as a man are joined in one big event. God came to earth as a human being to live, die, and rise again for each and every one of us. God so wanted a personal relationship with us, a relationship not bound by rules and laws, that He sent His son to teach us how to live. Jesus then became the sacrifice that would allow us into the presence of our Creator as He stands beside us when we approach the throne of Almighty God.

He didn't leave us with just a moment to hang our hat on. No, as a further gift He provided the treasure of the Holy Spirit to guide and teach us as we continue to hold in remembrance the pain and sacrifice He endured.

The stone has been rolled away and we are set free. “He is risen! He is risen, indeed!”

God bless you all! Rev Walt

He is Risen!
