Walt's Notes

My, the year is going by fast. May is upon us. We have already been graced with a new member and several visitors. Easter was beautiful, and we completed our series "Laid at His Feet." I pray you enjoyed the series as much as I enjoyed delivering it.

As we move into May, we begin a new series which is our second series on parables. "Let's talk parables 2" will bring us new teachings from the stories of Jesus. I hope to see everyone as we dig deeper into these wonderful stories told by Jesus.

May is also significant for us because May 8 is Mother's Day. While not a religious holiday, we choose to celebrate our mothers for the many sacrifices they have made for us. We celebrate all the mothers among us as a congregation for their valuable contributions.

June 5 is Pentecost Sunday and a significant day in the life of our congregation. Not only do we get to celebrate the events of Pentecost as Peter spoke to the multitudes, each in their only language, but it also marks the beginning of my fourth year of ministry at First Christian Church. I am truly blessed. Thank you for allowing me to serve you.

God bless you all!
